

Black-Eyed Susan

(Rudbeckia fulgida)

Sun Exposure: full sun to partial shade

Height: 1 - 3 ft.

Bloom Season: summer

Seed Season: autumn

Wildlife: Butterflies and bees eat the nectar

Birds eat the seeds

Fun Facts: Black-eyed Susan was named by early English settlers when they came to the New World.

NC Native

For more info:

